WHITEHALL CHOIR CHORAL WORKSHOP

22 MAY 2010, CHURCH OF THE HOLY SPIRIT, CLAPHAM

LEARN CHORAL TECHNIQUES FROM PAUL SPICER

Paul is a composer, conductor and musicologist and one of the leading exponents in British music today. He sees this day, the Choir's fourth singing event at CHS, as a friendly and informal opportunity to impart tips on singing and choral techniques as found in two contrasting works from different periods.

THE WHITEHALL CHOIR is a friendly and ambitious choir which gives three major concerts a year – the next is Haydn's Paukenmesse and Weber's Mass in E Flat on 3 July 2010, at St John's Smith Square, SW1. It has made two CDs under Paul Spicer's direction – Bruckner's Mass in E Minor and Spicer's Deciduous Cross and, in 2009, Fairest flower of any field, hailed by Gramophone magazine as a Christmas must-buy. For more details about the Choir, visit www.whitehallchoir.org.uk.

LOCATION OF CHORAL WORKSHOP ON 22 MAY, 2010

Church of the Holy Spirit, Narbonne Avenue, Clapham SW4 is off Abbeville Road, with its local cafés, restaurants and shops, and minutes away from Clapham Common (great for a picnic lunch if the weather is fine) and the Windmill pub.

Transport Clapham Common or Clapham South tube; 155 or 255 bus (along Clapham Common Southside); 37 and 137 bus (Clapham Park Road or Clapham Common station).
